Howard Kinsey and Manuel Alonso Reach Final Round in Net Tourney for Castle Point Cun

Double Victory Gains Bracket For Coast Star

Defeats Rosenbaum and Ky naston; Spaniard Scores Over Lang in Semi-Final

By Fred Hawthorne

Howard Kinsey, of California, and Manuel Alonso, of Spain, will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the final round of the Hoboken Tennis Club's nament for the Castle Point challenge trophy. In the final round of the women's singles the contenders will be Miss Marie Wagner, present holder of the cup, and Miss Margaret Grove, but this match will not be played until the cup, and Miss Margaret Grove, but this match will not be played until Saturday afternoon.

In a special round-robin women's doubles tournament that began yesterday, Mrs. Bronson Batchelor and Miss Caroma Winn won two clever victories, first defeating Miss M. R. Miller and Miss Dorothy Brand, by a score of 6—1, 6—3, and then eliminating Miss Wagner and Mrs. W. H. Pritchard at 6—3, 6—4. Mrs. Batchelor, who has not appeared in local tournament play since the World War, impressed me as possessing unusually good strokes, and it was the brilliance of her volleying in some of the close-up rallies that played a considerable part in the two victories she and her partner won. Miss Winn was also playing particularly well, her swift backhand being under fine control and her volleying crisp and defisive. She and Mrs. Batchelor finished off many of their points at the net position, finding a vulnerable spot every time they returned the ball between Miss Wagner and Mrs. Pritchard.

Kinsey was in better form yesterday than at any time since the tournament started. In the fourth round he defeated Dr. William Rosenbaum, the Rodolph Valentino of the tarred net, by a score of 6—3, 7—5. This match began where it left off on Tuesday, with Kinsey leading at 4—0. Rosenbaum started with a rush, winning three games before the Californian could win his two for the first set.

Rosenbaum Close to Victory

In the second set Kinsey worked up a lead of 3—1 and 4—3 by dint of skillfully controlled chopping and clever change of depth on his returns. Rosenbaum then took the bit in his teeth and forced his way into the lead at 5—4. He was forcing the net position and smothering returns, either by well angled volleying or heavy smashing of the Californian's lobs. Needing only two points for the set and a squaring of the match, the tennis "Rodolph" then broke two strings of his racquet as the result of an extra severe smash, and after changing to a new racquet dropped the next four points, for the game. Kinsey then ran out the next two games, giving him the set and match.

In the semi-final round, against the steadygoing and hard-working Kynaston, Kinsey was deadly accurate in his placements, and, in spite of the Long Island player's great coering of court the Californian won twelve out of the thirteen games played. He frequently scored clean placement aces on Kynaston by dropping soft chops barely over the net, after driving his opponent into back-court by deep forcing shots. Kynaston fought hard and brought many of the games to "deuce," but Kinsey was always master of the situation.

Alonso, in the mean time, was taking

Alonso, in the mean time, was taking Alonso, in the mean time, was taking the measure of young Jerome Lang, the Columbia University star, winning in straight sets by a score of 6-2, 7-5. This was a struggle in which the ralles were swifter and more varied than in Kinsey's match with Kynaston, for both players were hitting hard and taking the aggressive frequently. Lang did not have good control of his service in the first set, and Alonso allowed him only two games.

Kamm Is Insured by WhiteSox for $125,000

CHICAGO, Sept. 20 .-- A baseball player's life was insured for $125,000 when a policy was taken out to-day by the Chicago White Sox, insuring the club against the death of Willie Kamm, the sensational third baseman of the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast League, who recently was purchased

This is the largest amount for which a baseball player ever has been insured, it was announced. Ray Schalk, star catcher of the White Sox club, who is an insurance gent when not playing ball, wrote the policy.

Kamm, who is only twenty-two years old, is said to be one of the greatest third basemen in the game to-day and was purchased by the White Sox for $100,000 cash and players valued at $25,000. Three pitchers, Douglas McWeeney, Harry Courtney and Clarence "Shovel" Hodge, already have been turned over to the Seals as part payment. Kamm will report to the White Sox

The first leg was a reach to a mark between Mott's and Prospect points. Taurus soon took the lead and was 1 minute and 15 seconds ahead of South Wind. The times at the mark were: Taurus, 2:56:18; South Wind, 2:57:32; Three Star, 2:57:47; Fejo, 2:57:56; Brownie, 2:58:07 and Tara, 2:58:08.

The second leg was a broad reach across the Sound to another buoy off Parsonage Point. On this leg Fejo passed Three Star and was third yacht as the craft went on the wind for the beat home. All the yachts cut down the advantage held by Taurus and that craft was only 12 seconds ahead of South Wind at the second mark.

On the windward leg Taurus again pulled out on the fleet and won by 2 minutes and 11 seconds from Three Star, which moved up from fourth to second place. South Wind was third. The summary:

By scoring its third straight victory on Long Island Sound, yesterday, Taurus, owned by William L. Insiee, Bayside Yacht Club, representing the star class fleet of the western end of Long Island Sound, won the first national star class championship with a grand total of 18 out of a possible 18 points. Three Star was second yesterday and finished second in the series with 12 points. The third yacht in the series was Fejo.

The race, which was sailed under the auspices of the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club, was the slowest of the series. It was over a triangular course of 10½ miles. The wind was southwest and light, freshening slightly as the afternoon advanced.
